ALMOST A STEPMOM

Presented by Standing Room Only Theatre Company | Written and performed by Keara Barnes | Directed by Michael Stewart

August 29th - September 6th, 2015 at the Victoria Fringe Festival

Playing at Wood Hall at the Victoria Conservatory of Music (900 Johnson Street)

A TRUE Story. Keara moved to Ireland. She fell in love. Then she became a Stepmom....almost.
A darkly comic tale about the ups and downs of becoming a stepmother.

Following the SELL OUT Success of their last show (the award winning Irish play 'The Weir' ), Standing Room Only Theatre are debuting a WORLD PREMIERE written and performed by UVIC Theatre Graduate Keara Barnes and directed by Victoria native Michael David Stewart.

'ALMOST A STEPMOM' confronts both adult themes and relatable issues and resonates with a wide range of generations. It is for anyone who is part of a blended family, has lived abroad, fallen in love...or is simply growing up.

Multiple characters and a murder attempt round off this tumultuous and touching solo show.
